

LET IT GO

written by Meagan Maria Devauld copyright 2012

Samba

VS: She woke alone again, with a melody growing from the deep
a place at home where she constantly observes her reality
“What if I want to be someone more than what I see right here in front of me?
To tell my love I am free from the pain of never being me”

VS: She walked alone again, with a harmony growing from the deep then he changed her life when he made her see all that she could be “Oh, you know I want to be someone more than what I see right here in front of me,
With you my love I am free from the pain of never being me, being me again”

CORO: Oh, don't you see what you are to me?
Oh, don't you see, oh don't you see what you are to me, what you are to me?
Oh, don't you see what you are to me?
The melody you gave to me, the harmony made me believe
Oh, don't you see what you are to me?
Just let it go you said to me, and the truth will set you free
Oh, don't you see what you are to me?
Just let it go and the truth will set you free

SOLOS

CORO: Let it go, Ela, ela (6Xs)

END RIFF (slightly different in old recording)
