

Soldier (Bossa or Ska) Pozitive Rebellion Devauld 2013

written by Meagan Maria

VS: I saw her that day Singing in the Sun, Dancing in the Rain and to me she said “We will find a way to not pretend, to face this day”

B: Oh, freedom, Lonely freedom

VS: I awoke today
Crying in the sun, laughing in the rain to see their eyes awake, chasing away the pain “we’re just lost my friend, but we will sing again”

B: Oh, freedom, lonely freedom
will you listen to our song and will you sing along?

CH: I will save your soldier so I can give you power
Be the angel on the shoulder, of your lowest hour
Only love can save us, so may our song resist the day
That our heartbeats fail us, our breath falls away ...

A memory, a painting washed away Faded by the sun, swallowed by the rain but still remains the song, our bodies one the same and still remains our love though I cannot call your name

B: Oh, freedom, lonely freedom
will you listen to our song and will you sing along?

CH: I will save your soldier so I can give you power
Be the angel on the shoulder, of your lowest hour
Only love can save us, may our song resist the day
That our heartbeats fail us, oh our heartbeats fail us that our heart beats fail us, oh they will never fail us I will save your soldier, so I can give you power