Reggae (steppers beat)

Hey ya, if you feel like your love cannot grow you gotta breathe in, breathe out and learn to let it go and just feel it, so real, this love is so real

The answer lies in your heart not in your mind you gotta just be you now, don't fake it anymore and give me some feeling, make it real, this love is so real

Tonight's the night, when our love comes to life gone are the reasons to live without love because you give me something so real

Something so real that I cannot feel no pain you give me that feeling that there is nothing to keep me from loving again oh, so real, oh no, cuz you give me something so real
