

Chanson du Soleil written by Meagan Maria Devauld copyright 2009

This one's dedicated to my old friend Linda Bergeron

Ch: I hear your song, Chanson du soleil
Funny thing, sounds like a tune I heard yesterday
But it's been so long since I found my own way
Funny thing I wouldn't've recognized you any other way

There's something, don't know what it is, it's a feeling
Oh, that I'm dreaming and I know that we've been here before
But all I see, is that you're hiding the past, not discovering Oh no that what time brings, will always repeat as long as we stay this way
Oh no the true meaning of all that we do.....

Centuries ago ours was one tune but now yours is the sun and mine's of the moon
I won't follow the footsteps of this apparation
It's not real, we are one

Ch: I hear your song, Chanson du soleil
Funny thing sounds like a tune I heard yesterday
But it's been so long since I found my own way
Funny thing I wouldn't've recognized you any other way

Why am I feeling like it's not the same anymore
I'm not breathing, the devils breaking down my door
I'm not needing this pain anymore cuz the future will always be unsure I'm falling, down to the earth, cuz you're pleading for the proof to know what you're worth
I'll be waiting for a chance to try cuz there's still a need to wonder why

The taste of a memory the presence of you
Makes me feel like there's something more I should do
I don't know where I'm going but I'll try to stay true to my heart, I need to break through

Ch: I hear your song, Chanson du soleil
Funny thing sounds like a tune I heard yesterday
But it's been so long since I found my own way
Funny thing I wouldn't've recognized you any other way

I hear your song, Chanson du soleil
Funny thing sounds like a tune I heard yesterday
But it's been so long since I found my own way
Funny thing I wouldn't've recognized you any other way
